The International Olympic Committee
Mon Repos
Lausanne / Sveits

Mr. Chancellor,

On behalf of the City of Oslo I have the honour to pass on to you a letter dated 25th September 1963 signed by the Minister of Justice.

I trust the statement given complies entirely with the requirements of the I.O.C. as per your circular letter of 14th March 1963 under reference No. 219.

Yours faithfully,

Rolf Petersen

Address of The Organizing Committee a. i. for O.W.G. Oslo 1968:
Mr. Rolf Petersen, Grev Wedels plass 4, Oslo / Norway.
Sirs,

The authorities of the City of Oslo have informed me that the International Olympic Committee desires an official statement from the Norwegian Government concerning the entry into this country of participants in the Xth Olympic Winter Games, should they be awarded to Oslo.

I therefore take pleasure in giving you the assurances that were requested in your letter of March 14th, 1963, to the Olympic Committee of Oslo.

While the 1968 Olympic Games are now several years in the future, the Norwegian Government anticipates that adequate provision will be made for entry into Norway of participating athletes, teams, officials, juries etc. from the national Olympic committees and International Federations recognized by the I.O.C. to attend 1968 Olympic Winter Games, should they be held in Norway.
The Norwegian Government is most anxious to welcome athletes from all over the world for the Xth Olympic Winter Games and would hereby express its willingness to facilitate the entry of all bona fide participants in these Games.

Please accept the assurances of my highest esteem.

O. C. Gundersen
Minister of Justice.
THE ALIENS COMMISSION OF THE STATE

M.B.

Stockholm,
the 25th of February, 1963

To
The Swedish Olympic Committee.

In consequence of your letter to the Aliens Commission of the State with regard to the Olympic Winter Games in 1968 the Commission makes the following statement, viz.,

As far as can be concluded now and in regard to the policy in granting visas the Commission has pursued during a succession of years, visas to enter Sweden will be granted to the participants in the above Olympic Winter Games, irrespective of the part of the world from which they are arriving.

(S. Bundsen)
Till Sveriges Olympiska Kommitté.

Med anledning av Eder skrivelse till statens utlänningkommission angående de olympiska vinterspelen 1968 får kommissionen meddela följande:

Såvitt nu kan bedömas och med hänsyn till den viseringspolitik kommissionen fört under en följd av år kommer deltagare i ovan nämnda olympiska vinterspel att meddelas inresevisering till Sverige oavsett från vilken del av världen de kommer.

STATENS UTLÄNNINGSKOMMISSION

(S. Bundsen)
A Monsieur Le Chancelier
du Comité International Olympique,

Monsieur Otto Mayer,

J'ai l'honneur de vous aviser que le Conseil Municipal d'Oslo a décidé à l'unanimité de se porter candidat comme ville organisatrice des Jeux Olympiques d'Hiver 1968.

Vous voudrez bien trouver ci-inclus deux exemplaires
de la brochure constituant l'invitation officielle adressée par la Ville d'Oslo au Comité International Olympique en vue de l'organisation éventuelle des Jeux Olympiques d'Hiver 1968 en Norvège. Monsieur O.
Ditlev-Simonsen jr. se chargera de sa présentation devant les Membres du C.I.O. lors de la réunion qui se tiendra ce mois-ci à Athènes.

Comptant sur la bienveillance du Comité International Olympique je vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur Le Chancelier, les assurances de ma parfaite considération.

Oslo, le 15 Juin 1961.

Brynjulf Bull
Maire de la Ville d'Oslo.
